Timeline of Arts Every Day

- 2006 Baltimore Partners for Enhanced Learning founded as a nonprofit.
- 2007 Organization changes name to Arts Every Day to reflect mission and launches www.artseveryday.org
- 2008 AED launches the Schools Program based on Dallas Big Thought in 3 partner schools.
- 2010 Schools Program expands beyond serving middle schools to reach 25 Pre-K-12 partner schools.
- 2012 Baltimore City named as the 9th city to participate in the John F. Kennedy Center "Any Given Child" Initiative.

Schools Program expands to 35 Partner Schools
- 2018 AED launches the Baltimore Arts Education Initiative bringing together a cross sector team to develop a Fine Arts Strategic Plan with City Schools.
- 2021 AED receives a 5-year, $2.9 million US Dept of Education grant to expand arts integration teacher professional development.
- 2022 Launch of the Maggie McIntosh Arts Fund to purchase arts supplies, equipment, and experiences for all City Schools.

Looking Forward:

We remain steadfast in our mission to make sure every Baltimore City Student attends a school with:

Visual art, music, theater, and dance instruction

The opportunity to learn a musical instrument

Arts integrated instruction in math, language arts, science and social studies

Artist residencies, field trips, and performances

Access to high quality art supplies and fine arts equipment

We are incredibly grateful to each and every donor who made a gift between

INVESTING IN YOUTH LEADERSHIP

'22 BALTIMORE YOUTH ADVOCACY COUNCIL

The B'More Youth Arts Advocacy Council(BYAAC) is composed of eight Baltimore City youth creatives in grades 10 - 12 who attend schools in the District. They meet twice a week for a total of 4 hours to learn more about and impact school policymaking in the Baltimore City Public School System(BCPSS).

People don't know what they don't know! We have been working together as a team since September to raise public awareness about the benefits of an arts education.

In December, we organized an Arts Education Town Hall Meeting, inviting everyone in the community to hear directly from and ask questions of Dr. Santelises, the CEO of BCPSS, about the successes, challenges and the promise of making the arts accessible to all students attending City Schools.

After learning about the District's budget process with guest speaker Marc LaVae, from the Family and Community Engagement Office, we made our voices heard at the Youth Priority Engagement Session to make sure that the arts are prioritized in the SY23 budget.

LAUNCH OF THE BALTIMORE ARTS INTEGRATION PROJECT

Arts Every Day launched the Baltimore Arts Integration Project (BAIP), a 5-year U.S. Department of Education-funded initiative.

BAIP is a collaborative between Arts Every Day and Dr. Mariale Hardiman, a professor and co-founder of the Johns Hopkins Neuro-Education Initiative.

Each year, teaching artists and classroom teachers will collaborate on developing virtual arts integration training courses based on City Schools curriculum.
